

Job Description: Team Mom – Athletic League-community builder

Position Title: Team Mom/Dad

Reports To: Head Coach and League Coordinator

Type: Volunteer Ministry Position

Overview:

The Team Mom plays a vital role in fostering a sense of community, unity, and support within the team and across the athletic league. This position is considered a ministry, emphasizing care, encouragement, and servant leadership. The Team Mom will work closely with the coach, players, parents, and other team moms to create a positive environment that strengthens team spirit and league camaraderie. This role requires organizational skills, communication, and a heart for building relationships. We seek individuals who embody a spirit of excellence in all they do. Positivity is key.

Key Responsibilities:

Community Building:

- ★ Cultivate a strong sense of community within the team through team bonding activities, such as organizing team bonding days, celebrations, and events that promote fellowship and teamwork.
- ★ Coordinate with other team moms across the league to plan after-game socials, ensuring opportunities for players, families, and coaches to connect and build relationships.
- ★ Act as a compassionate and approachable figure, encouraging open communication and support among team members, parents, and league stakeholders.

Logistical Duties:

- Assign jobs on the court to volunteer parents or mature young men and women, ensuring they understand their roles and responsibilities during games and practices.
- Manage the distribution and collection of team jerseys, ensuring they are washed, marked off, and accounted for either before the banquet or at the banquet using an Excel sheet or paper checklist.
- Serve as the primary liaison between the coach and parents, relaying important information about team activities, schedules, and updates in a timely and clear manner.

League and Parental Liaison:

- Act as the point of contact for parents regarding team activities, yearbook pictures, photos, and other league-related information, ensuring everyone is informed and engaged.
- Collaborate with league photographers and coordinators to facilitate yearbook and photo sessions, communicating details to parents and players.

Event Coordination:

- Work with the coach and other team moms to plan and execute team events, including after-game play socials, banquets, and other special occasions that celebrate the team's efforts and achievements.

Qualifications:

- A passion for serving others and building community, treating the role as a ministry with dedication and care.
- Strong organizational and communication skills, with the ability to coordinate multiple tasks and people effectively.
- Experience or comfort with basic administrative tasks, such as using Excel or maintaining checklists.
- Ability to work collaboratively with coaches, parents, players, and league officials.
- A demonstrated spirit of excellence in all endeavors, reflecting commitment, integrity, and high standards and positivity.

Time Commitment:

This is a volunteer position with flexible hours, primarily during the athletic season. Duties may include attending games, practices, and special events, as well as occasional planning meetings with the coach and other team moms.
